

An abstract painting titled 'Der Tag des Eros'. The composition is dominated by warm, earthy tones of red, orange, and yellow, with some cooler purple and blue accents. The brushwork is expressive and textured, with visible strokes and layers of paint. The overall effect is one of intense energy and passion, consistent with the title. The painting is presented on a heavy canvas with a 3.7cm thick frame.

DER TAG DES EROS

130x160cm

Acryl auf schwerer Leinwand

3,7cm starker Rahmen

CARL L. HART

